

Round Hill Hotel and Villas Introduces Familymoons
-Enjoy the Perfect Blend of Romance and Family Togetherness-

6 December 2016 (MONTEGO BAY, JAMAICA) - In line with the growing trend for newlyweds to take their children on honeymoon or “familymoon,” luxurious 5* resort Round Hill Hotel and Villas in Jamaica offers the perfect mix of family and romantic experiences. The resort’s award-winning kids’ club programme and special spa activities will keep children and teens amused while parents unwind with luxurious spa treatments and romantic dinners. Families can create long-lasting memories together with the Weekly Villa Hideaway and array of island activities that can be organised by the resort.

The Pineapple Kids’ Club and 7-Up Club - both of which were refurbished this year – will keep children (aged between 3-12 years) entertained with a range of activities including: basketball, arts and crafts and drama. Daily programmes ensure each child has the opportunity to express their creativity, which is something that is highly encouraged by the resort’s activity coordinators to help children feel confident in their abilities.

While the children are learning a new sport or craft, newlyweds can unwind with The Spa at Round Hill’s Sunset Package: a 50 minute couples massage with champagne and a fruit platter served on the pier with the sunset as the perfect backdrop. Round Hill also offers after-hour nanny services, so parents can spend quality time together when the kids have gone to bed.

For children and teenagers who want to get in on the spa action, the exquisite Spa at Round Hill has introduced an ‘All About Me’ Tweens-Teens Spa Menu for children 12-16 years. This special offering includes massages, facials, manicures and pedicures, make-up and hair services. Children and teens can learn Yodanga – a unique blend of Jamaican style dance moves that flow into yoga postures, challenging creativity and leaving guests feeling energised, focused and balanced. Round Hill also offers a ‘Mini-Me’ Spa Menu for little ones aged between 4 and 11. The menu includes special facials, massages, ‘colour-me-pretty’ manicures and pedicures and hair braiding.

To ensure that the family spends quality time together, the Weekly Villa Hideaway, which was introduced earlier this year, encapsulates warm Jamaican hospitality and provides guests with a unique private experience. This special offer presents guests with accommodation in one of the property’s 27 secluded villas nestled within the resort.

Guests can choose between four villa options – from two to six bedrooms – each villa has its own dedicated staff including a cook, housekeeper and gardener, allowing guests to unwind with their loved ones whilst the villa staff anticipates and takes care of every need, making it the perfect option for families travelling together.

Over a seven-night stay, guests' culinary palates will be tantalised with daily breakfast and afternoon tea, as well as two four-course dinners from Round Hill's Executive Chef Maginley's menu.

In addition to the resort's two restaurants, there are also private dining options for couples and families, from a romantic gazebo dinner for two against a moonlit backdrop of the sea to a memorable family beachside dinner, which offers a custom-designed menu to suit all tastes and culinary preferences.

For those looking to explore the island during their stay, the resort's concierge is on hand to book a range of family excursions in the local area including rainforest and waterfall tours, visits to historical sites and more.

Travel dates for Round Hill Hotel and Villas' Weekly Villa Hideaway range from now until 17 December 2017. Rates start at $5,969/approx. £4,697 per week. *Blackout dates apply.
