Outside of the Hawaii, the most popular islands Americans visit for their honeymoons are in the Caribbean. In fact, it's the most popular foreign honeymoon destination for us – and its no wonder why! Looking at these beautiful hotels we're tempted to book our flights out right now. With gorgeous beaches, tropical greens, and warm weather, the Caribbean is as close to paradise as it gets! Here are our top picks of luxurious hotels and resorts in the Caribbean that will be an amazing honeymoon options in alphabetical order.

Round Hill Hotel & Villas

At Round Hill, luxury is not about marble and gilt. It's about service from people who care – sense of comfort with style. A place completely in sync with nature. Guests may choose to stay in one of 36 luxurious Ralph Lauren-designed oceanfront guest rooms or in one of 27 individually owned private villas. With water sports such as water-skiing, scuba and tubing, PADI diving excursions, deep-sea fishing boats, yachts available for charter, tennis, a spa located in a beautifully restored 18th century plantation house on 10-acres of beachfront lawn, a fitness center, yoga pavilion, dining, and shopping available day and night, you won't find a more perfect Jamaican resort experience. Golf can be arranged at any of five championship courses, the closest being at the private Tryall Club just a few minutes away with complimentary daily shuttle service.
