“STIR IT UP”

When your room is designed by Ralph Lauren you better wear Ralph Lauren...

When I first walked into my room at the Round Hill what struck me most was the breathtaking view. This was immediately followed by, “how cute is this room!” Bathed in all white, the room was the perfect palette of Ralph Lauren prep. In addition to the pops of color from the decor, my other favorite feature about the room had to be the giant oversized bath tub. It’s a must for every girl’s bathroom.

My night started with Ralph Lauren stripes and ended with leftover bubbly in a bubble bath. In other words, pure vacation perfection...
